

I benefit from listening to Xm as I am able to choose the music and commentary that I want to hear commerical free.
If there is legislation that would restrict the types of entertainment or public service information that I receive, I would be against it.

My belief is that there are enough opportunities for commercial broadcasters for programming without mandating that sattelite broadcasters limit what content that they can provide